report to the listener

Dear Listener,

October and November mark the beginning of a new budget cycle here at KPFK. Please let me review some highlights of the last few months of our 1989-'90 fiscal year which closed September 30th.

All year, your generous support allowed us to stay ahead of our expenses and enabled us recently to respond to several newsmaking emergencies: the Crisis in the Persian Gulf and the confirmation hearings of Supreme Court nominee David Souter.

Your support also maintained our basic 24-hour-a-day operations. We had a couple of emergencies here too: Two of our 20-year old air conditioners went out at the end of June and have since been replaced; and we have built a new, though temporary, drainage system on top of our building to help preserve the roof.

And your support allowed us to file a strong license renewal application with the Federal Communications Commission. The filing process included a study and response to environmental regulations which are triggered by the license application. Moreover, your support in dollars and letters keeps the FCC on notice that its "indecent" standards infringe on free speech. The dust has not yet settled in this ongoing battle. In brief, listener sponsorship means that we are your radio station: every thing we do is funded by you.

At the end of the fiscal year, we had a small surplus. It's not enough to make the new hire we want to improve our programming, but if your support continues and grows, we'll be able to start recruiting for that position by the end of the calendar year. If all goes well, our license should be renewed about that same time.

Despite the problems at home and abroad that gnaw at our sense of peace and tranquility, KPFK staff chooses to remain hopeful. We know there are no end of good ideas by which the world can be improved and it's our job to find the people to broadcast those ideas.

Thank you all for a good fiscal year and here's hoping for an even better one coming up.

Let me close with some random notes: KPFK has recently hired a new production assistant. Her name is Marcia Caldwell and she's a good one. We are still recruiting for an administrative assistant, half time.

We need a few good volunteers acquainted with fundraising and development; and we always need volunteers in news and at our reception desk.

On October 15th 1982, then president Reagan signed a bill to deregulate the Savings and Loan industry. He was quoted as saying, "All in all, I believe we've hit the jackpot." A fine book has been published on this subject entitled Inside Job: the Looting of America's Savings and Loans by Stephen Pizzo, Mary Fricker and Paul Muolo. Another fine book is due for publication soon, called Blank Check: The Pentagon's Black Budget.

HELP

The KPFK station board needs additional members, so as to increase its support to the independent radio station. We are particularly looking for people with skills in promotion, fund raising and public relations. In order to better reflect the rich diversity of our listening area, we extend a special invitation to people from the Asian, Caucasian, Middle Eastern and Native American Communities. Please call the station during business hours for more information and/or an application form.

The Pacifica Foundation provides the KPFK mailing list to an organization which in turn rents or exchanges, on behalf of the Foundation, mailing lists of other non-profit organizations. If you object to having your name and address used in this way, please write to our Subscriptions Department, enclosing a recent Folio label, and we will omit you from our exchange list.

If your request has already been entered into the computer, the letters "NX" will appear on the top line of your mailing label, to the right of the expiration date.

UNITED NATIONS...
WORLDS APART

*Programs in the Folio related to this topic are listed with this symbol: **

Fall 1990 Fund Drive, October 24 through November 2. Starting on United Nations Day, our special Fund Drive programming highlights growing international and domestic stress. Among the speakers who reveal the discord and the harmony are Noam Chomsky, Cynthia Enloe, Gore Vidal, presenters at "The Other Economic Summit" and, of all people, John Hull. Check the program listings during the Fund Drive so you don't miss your favorites.

Inside the Inltada. This four-part series from Pacifica National Programming shows us another example of distinct worlds colliding. You can hear this continuing program October 9 through October 12 at 7:00-7:30 each night.

Skeletons, Spies and Covert Trick or Treat. The underworld of covert action and the overground of governmental deceit are further evidence of the friction in our world. The horror stories featured this month reach a climax on Halloween and include, Lines of Deceit (Oct. 3 and 10 at 3:30 pm, Oct. 6 and 13 at 10:30 pm), The Secret Team (Oct. 20 at 10:30 pm and Oct. 27 at 11:00 pm), An Interview with William Kunsler (Oct. 11 at 8:00 pm, Oct. 15 at 3:00 pm and Oct. 27 at 10:00 pm), The Emperors New Clothes (Oct. 27 at 6 pm), Malathion (Oct. 10, 17 and 24 at 4:00 pm).

OCTOBER IS...

Programs in the Folio related to this topic are listed with this symbol: ★

October is a very important month for several reasons, and KPFK salutes each of them. For example, Cultural Diversity Month is highlighted with programs such as The We Hours, which highlights Cultural Diversity during October, and Mario Casetta's Independent Music which, at 9:30 on October 3rd, which presents the National Heritage Fellowships honoring folk musicians.

AIDS Awareness Month is featured with such works as the play AIDS/Us II, which airs Oct. 8 at 10:00 pm.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month is the focus of Feminist Magazine on Oct. 3rd, 5:00 pm.

Challenge! (on Oct. 4, 11 and 18 at 3:30 pm) gives us a perspective into National Disabilities Month.

October is also Hispanic Heritage Month, which KPFK recognizes with programs like Enfoque Latino's special program on the Mexican Revolution (Nov. 20, 3:00-5:00 pm).

NOVEMBER ELECTIONS

Featured from Oct. 2 — Nov. 6

Programs in the Folio related to this topic are listed with this symbol: ➤

As we near the elections, KPFK will present four debates regarding the ballot issues whose topics include crime, alcohol, forests and the environment. (Oct. 30, 31 and Nov. 2 at 5:00 pm; Nov. 4 at 4:00 pm). Roy Ulrich offers another perspective on Nov 5 at 7:30 am and 11:00 pm when he reviews the issues with representatives from the League of Women Voters. Finally, when it's all over, KPFK brings you election night coverage of the results, Nov. 6 at 7:00 pm.

THANKSGIVING WEEKEND
THE GRAPES OF WRATH

Nov. 22 — Nov. 26

For extensive details about our encore broadcast of the Grapes of Wrath and an update on Pacifica's continuing FCC indecency battle, see November 22. Complementing our reading of this work, we will present programming relevant to the Thanksgiving season, as well as the topic of censorship including food and football, the JFK assassination, alternative interpretations of American history and McCarthyism in Hollywood. Portions of a 13-part series, Supreme Court Watch: The High Court in Transition, a joint project of WBAI-New York and The Nation Institute, will also be featured.

OBSERVANCES

Other notable days also fall in October, specifically Indigenous People's Day (Columbus Day), which KPFK recognizes with such programs as They All Discovered America, (Oct. 8, 9:00 am). In this heady mixture of spoken word and music, Marcus Lopez and Mario Casetta have teamed up to give us a fresh look at 1492 which explores many facets of fact and myth about role of, and relationship to the "Admiral of the Ocean Seas" and peoples from the Old World and the New.

Veterans/Armistice Day marks a strange time in U.S. History. KPFK's Four Dead in Ohio takes us back to that discordant time.

SQUARE PEGS

Programs in the Folio related to this topic are listed with this symbol: ✓

Like so many other areas of life, there are those elements that refuse to be categorized but scream out to be noticed. Such programs during these coming months are Play Ball: The Aesthetics of Failure, which examines, among other things, baseball crime. We bring this to you during the World Series, Oct. 18 at 2:30 pm.

John Lennon's 50th birthday is marked with the rebroadcast of John Lennon: Rock and Roll Peace Politician a documentary in words and song which focuses on Lennon's involvement as a political activist (Oct. 9 at 8:30 pm).

Political singer/songwriter Holly Near talks to IMRU's Josy Catoggio about her revealing new autobiography, Fire in the Rain...Singer in the Storm (Oct. 28, 10:00 pm; Nov. 7, 5:00 pm).

★ MIO WEEK

3:30-4:00

Lines of Deceit: Cocaine and the White House: Part one of this two part program explores the real truth behind George Bush's much-publicized "War on Drugs" and its relationship to international drug producers and distributors. Questions like, "How is the drug flow to be abated if the financing of covert operations is dependent upon it?" And, "Were the Contras smuggling cocaine and marijuana as a means of financing the war against Nicaragua?" In posing these questions, Lines of Deceit explores the underbelly of drug smuggling and its connection to agencies of the US government. Speakers include Daniel Sheehan, Senior Counsel for the Christic Institute; a leading member of Columbia's opposition party; and others who explore the domestic and foreign effects of "The War on Drugs" and its role as a replacement for the Cold War.

4:30-5:00

Jan Robinson Flint presents Teen School Beat, a program which focuses on teenagers. These young adults are busy these days revolting in schools and facing racism, inferior education, non-committed instructors, and violence in all corners of their worlds. This program features music, interviews, call-ins, poetry and politics — all from teens who talk from their vantage point on how they are organizing to do something to improve their world.

5:00-5:55 pm FEMINIST MAGAZINE

Domestic Violence and Spousal Rape. This show includes testimony, court and law enforcement representatives, and a short piece on pride burning, a form of domestic violence practiced in India. Call-ins, too. Produced by the KPFK Women's Coalition.

✓ JOHN LENNON

John Lennon: Rock and Roll Peace Politician. A decade has passed since the tragic death of the man who changed the face of rock music and post-modern popular culture. This documentary in words and song focuses on John Lennon's involvement as a political activist. Using paintings, sculptures, happenings, billboards and the popular song form, John Lennon and Yoko Ono were prominent leaders in the peace movement and fought censorship, hunger, sexism, mental illness, classism and racial oppression.

Exclusive interviews for this documentary include Lennon's close friend Elliot Mintz, former Melody Maker editor Ray Coleman, and performance artist Jackie Apple. A shorter version of this program aired last year on Lennon's birthday. Today marks its debut as an hour-long feature. Produced by J.B. Peterson.

The F.C.C: Trampling Out the Vintage...

In early August, the Federal Communications Commission announced its renewed commitment to enforce the Helms Amendment banning "indecent" language 24 hours a day. Pacifica continues to be the leading advocate opposing the FCC in court and we anticipate that they will petition to begin enforcement of the ban within 90 days.

Part of Pacifica's brief to the FCC's hearings on "indecent" highlighted last year's broadcast of the Grapes of Wrath:

As a program to be featured on Thanksgiving Day, 1989, Pacifica station KPFK-FM, Los Angeles, California, planned a dramatic reading of John Steinbeck's famous novel, The Grapes of Wrath. Thanksgiving seemed a perfect occasion to dramatize the experience of being poor, homeless, and hungry. Actors and actresses were recruited, and a production was planned. Then, the question arose: was this classic novel, taught in high schools across the country, "decent?" Could it be read without fear of generating listener complaints or regulatory reprisal? (Reasonable questions in light of the 95 actions on indecency which the Commission had just announced.)

The witch hunt for words began. Could a chapter be read at 10:00 am if it contained 10 "hells," six "damns," two "bastards," one "bull-bitch," and one "whale whanger?" Did the phrase "not enough crop to plug up an ant's ass" have to be cut? Could people, on radio, be "full of piss and vinegar?" Could breasts be "soft," hips "hard," and buttocks "swinging," or did the sensual world exist only on non-broadcast media? Could men "urinate," bulls "breed" and babies "suck," or could references to these mundane activities possibly offend the "average listener?" Finally, could any of the final scene of the novel, in which Rose of Sharon suckles a starving man, be read?

Approximately 40 hours of staff time and several hours of an attorney's time were spent in answering these questions. Although it is painfully clear that this effort drained the limited resources of a non-commercial station trying to produce a serious work of literature, it is highly doubtful that this effort benefitted the public interest one iota.

In spite of the possibility that the Helms Amendment will go into effect in the near future, at press time we plan to rebroadcast this potentially actionable reading. Our attorneys have advised us, as a precautionary measure, to schedule the controversial final chapter later in the evening. In consideration of the many parents who expressed appreciation for the chance to experience great literature with their children, we will air the conclusion of the novel at 9:30 PM in hopes that it will not be too late for them. Our thanks to Roz and Howard Larman, whose gracious cooperation made this compromise possible.

Finally, in a related matter, Pacifica is now gearing up to join lawsuits filed against the NEA's "anti-obscenity" policy and to formally reject two grants recently awarded us that contain the Helms-authored restrictions on artistic freedom currently being debated in Congress.

"The hell with it! There ain't no sin and there ain't no virtue. There's just stuff people do. It's all part of the same thing. And some of the things folks do is nice, and some ain't nice, but that's as far as any man got a right to say." — Casy, the "former" preacher The Grapes of Wrath.
